Synopsis

PLAYERS STUDIO DEBRECEN (HUNGARY)

The Salesman of Memories

A strange foreigner, coming from a distant country, sells happy memories and long-forgotten dreams to passersby in a suburb of Tokyo.

The travelling musician intends to cheer up his customers, after the sadness and pain of post-war depression – for only 100 yen. He tries to evoke happy feelings, tries to revive nice memories with the magic help of music, to make people's life easier.

Passersby go about their business, paying no attention to his benevolent production. The memory selling business does not seem to be working...

A blind old man comes and goes, listening to the melodies and the dialogues. He cannot see, but he understands how the musician tries to put together fragments of human lives, broken by destruction .
