TEATRO DE BALUGAS OUR BREAD

The village of Balugaes was a land where a lot of bread was kneaded, and many pine troughs were carved. Bread was the livelihood, as so were the troughs. A list of short stories that tell more than the artifact, the food, the work. A collection of memories, litanies, songs, and crafts, recovering utensils and artistically articulating the creation of the show with the community. From here, the Teatro de Balugas approaches the bread cycle in the village in a theatrical and poetic way, reconstructing it from different non-traditional and almost dreamlike principles.
