Cie CHAOS LÉGER PLUS ON AVANCE...

A transfer zone. Travellers departing. They are here, but they are looking to go somewhere else. He is not from here, but he is willing to accompany them elsewhere. Together they move forward... But do they even know where they are going? Something is not right in this square world. Where is the exit?

A group of travellers stuck in an undefined space. Is it an airport? A train station? Have they just arrived, or are they in transit? Loaded down with luggage, they wander back and forth across the space, happily following a precise, well-rehearsed choreography. Ticket validation, conveyor belts and airlocks follow one another in absurd succession. They obediently follow the arrows that are supposed to lead them to a hypothetical exit. But the faulty system always leads them to a dead end.

A dreamy character, oblivious to their antics, watches them exhaust themselves in these futile convolutions and philosophises candidly about the emptiness of their strange wanderings. When a breakdown brings the machine to a halt, he guides them alongside paths, helping them, with poetry and tenderness, to find a way out.

PLUS ON AVANCE is a collective creation, with a burlesque tone, but one that highlights the absurdity of the mad rush of a world hurtling towards an uncertain destination and questions our ability to remain in control of the direction we are taking.
